(4) Socioeconomic Plan. This factor will be evaluated on a comparative basis among all offerors. An Offeror that proposes a higher percentage, complexity level, and variety of participation by small, small disadvantaged, veteran-owned small, HUBZone small, service-disabled veteran owned small, women-owned small businesses, and Historically Black Colleges and Universities and Minority Institutions combined, generally will receive a higher rating on this factor. An offeror that compiles and considers past performance data on its subcontractors in the source selection decision for subcontracts will receive a higher rating on this factor. An Offeror's efforts to develop additional opportunities for small, small disadvantaged , veteran-owned small, HUBZone small, service-disabled veteran owned small, women-owned small businesses , and Historically Black Colleges and Universities and Minority Institutions will also be comparatively evaluated with the proposals of other offerors. Offerors' proposals for socioeconomic support will be made a part of any resulting contract for use in determining how well the Contractor has adhered to its socioeconomic plan. This plan will be monitored as a means of assisting the Contracting Officer in determining how well the Contractor has in fact performed. This determination will then be used as a consideration prior to future source selection decisions. Past performance on prior contracts in subcontracting and assisting small, small disadvantaged, veteran-owned small, HUBZone small, service-disabled veteran owned small, women-owned small businesses , and Historically Black Colleges and Universities and Minority Institutions will also be evaluated as part of this factor.

NOTE: As a matter of clarification, offerors will receive a higher rating under the Technical/Management evaluation for the capability to perform required services in-house. The Socioeconomic Plan evaluation will consider that part of the required services that cannot be performed in-house.

c. Award(s) will be made to the Offeror(s) whose proposal conforms to the solicitation and represents the best value to the Government, after consideration of all evaluation factors listed above.
